Sargent Claude Johnson

A mid-twentieth century California African American artist.

The exhibit high lights the career of Sargent Claude Johnson, an African American artist, whose career encompassed an emerging New Negro movement, the Harlem Renaissance, local and european modernism and the unique San Francisco Bohemian influences. His status as an artist, who was professionally prominent, successful and black, is special in the history of early California art.

Opening
Wednesday, June 19, 2024
5:30 - 7:30 PM

Exhibit
Saturday, June 15, 2024 -
Saturday, August 31, 2024

Gallery Hours
Wednesday - Saturday,
1-5 PM
or by appointment

Location
African American Art and Culture Complex, 2nd floor
762 Fulton Street, San Francisco, CA 94102

sfaahcs.org / info@sfaahcs / 415-922-4916

Curated by William Hoskins